EXHIBITING AND ADVERTISING GUIDE

March 27-30, 2017 | Von Braun Center | Huntsville, Alabama

National Children's Advocacy Center

Why Exhibit at the International Symposium on Child Abuse?

The 33rd International Symposium on Child Abuse offers over 130 workshops and is one of the few conferences that addresses all aspects of child maltreatment, including, but not limited to physical abuse, sexual abuse, neglect, exposure to violence, poly-victimization, exploitation, intervention, trafficking, and prevention.

Who attends?

Presidents, CEOs, Attorneys General, Prosecutors, Chiefs of Police, Directors, Executive Directors, Human Resource Directors, Marketers, Accountants, Assistant District Attorneys, Medical Directors, Special Victims Unit Officers, Doctors, Nurses, Psychologists, Probation Officers, Investigators, Therapists, Child Advocates, and Caseworkers.

What do they buy?

Closed Circuit TV and Video Equipment, Recording Devices, Computer Hardware and Software, Mobile Devices, Medical Exam Equipment, Data/Document Management Systems, Therapy Aids, Training, Prevention Curriculum, and other products and services.

Meeting associates face-to-face is the fastest and most effective way to build relationships, and interact with decision makers and potential customers. Symposium attendees consistently tell us how much they learn from and enjoy their time in the exhibit area and discover products and services they were not aware of before. Your presence at the Symposium positions your organization as a committed supporter in the fight to end child abuse and gives you a competitive advantage in the industry. Make the most of your marketing dollars by taking advantage of this affordable exhibit opportunity!

Organizations and agencies represented as speakers and participants include US Homeland Security, US Armed Forces, Federal Bureau of Investigation, the US Department of Justice, the European Cybercrime Centre – Europol, Polaris Project, ICAC (Internet Crimes Against Children) Task Force, state bureaus of investigation, children’s advocacy centers, district attorney’s offices, state and local police departments and sheriff’s offices, state departments of human resources, hospitals, domestic and international universities, and more.

“This was the first time for International Association of Forensic Nurses to be at this conference, and connected with the attendees that represented an audience that we have not historically had contact with.” - Diane Daiber, International Association of Forensic Nurses.

“I left with new contacts and ideas to develop new products.” - Rebecca Born, Executive Director, Connections: A Safe Place

“The wealth of knowledge you gain during Symposium is priceless.” - Regina Jackson, Child Protective Services, North Carolina

“All of the presentations I attended were good, and I have more than one thing that I am implementing at our center as a result. Most worthwhile conference I’ve attended!” Maggi Hutchason, Executive Director, Oklahoma

“I’m very pleased with Symposium and just want to thank you all for a fantastic week.” - Anders Forsberg, Administration, Sweden
