

Global Leadership

The National Children Advocacy Center (NCAC), birthplace of the Children's Advocacy Center (CAC) movement, continues to champion efforts throughout the U.S. and the world to develop an effective response to child abuse. More than 900 CACs in the U.S. served over 367,000 children last year. There are also CACs in more than 34 countries.

NCAC TRAINING CENTER

- Leading provider of exceptional training, consultation, and resources for professionals working with abused children and their families.
- Host of the longest running, annual child abuse conference in the U.S. in Huntsville, AL, the International Symposium on Child Abuse.
- International leader on developing multidisciplinary approaches to child abuse prevention and response.
- Trainings and technical assistance based on the most recent published research and currently accepted best practices.

TRAINED 179
158 THOUSAND PROFESSIONALS
COUNTRIES
SINCE 1985

CALiO™(CHILD ABUSE LIBRARY ONLINE)

- Largest professional resource collection related to child maltreatment.
- Over 4,200 keyword-searchable materials, including fact sheets, best practice guidelines, community education tools, and much more.
- Vast resources to develop services for children and families.
- International publications and bibliographies on topic-based research.
- All services and resources available FREE of charge.

SOUTHERN REGIONAL CHILDREN'S ADVOCACY CENTER

- Training and technical assistance provider to CACs, multidisciplinary teams (MDTs), and state Chapters in the southeastern U.S. (16 states and the District of Columbia).
- Service area includes 449 CACs, which accounts for 45% of all CACs in the U.S.
- National leader in providing training and resources on vicarious trauma/secondary traumatic stress and their effects on organizations, individuals, and teams serving abused children

